School Board

Francis Harrigan
Board President

Mrs. H. W. Sawyer
Board Secretary

E. B. Loring
Board Member

That ours is a friendly school is manifested by our school board. Mr. Harrigan, board president, is our friend, always interested in athletics and in school activities of all kinds. He has brought to his position a sympathetic understanding of our problems.

Board secretary is Mrs. H. W. Sawyer. Busy with her interest in Nevada history, with her fine kennels, we know we are fortunate to have Mrs. Sawyer associated with directing the affairs of our school.

A long time friend of Churchill County High School, Mr. E. B. Loring this year took his place on the school board. Retiring this year is Mr. Will H. Williams, whose kindness and friendliness to all we shan't forget.

Trustees' Message

NEW FRONTIERS

O you youths, Western youths,
So impatient, full of action, full of manly pride and friendship,
Plain I see you, Western youths, see you tramping with the foremost
Pioneers! O Pioneers!

All the past we leave behind,
We debouch upon a new, mightier world, varied world;
Fresh and strong the world we seize, world of labor on the march—
Pioneers! O Pioneers!

We detachments steady throwing,
Down the edges, through the passes, up the mountains steep;
Conquering, holding, daring, venturing as we go the unknown ways—
Pioneers! O Pioneers!

—WALT WHITMAN

Always since time began there have been frontiers for the daring youth; vast, little known lands where the youth of older civilization might find the opportunity denied him in settled lands. For three hundred years in America our frontiers have offered physical adventures, primarily, although he who conquered the wilderness must be possessed of a keen and active mind to foresee danger and to protect his property. The great accomplishments of these hardy pioneers have been so impressed upon young people that it has become a habit of thought for young Americans to seek their future on the frontier, there to wrest a home from the forest or desert; a place where, by their own efforts, they might realize their dreams.

Passing years have changed this. They have witnessed the settling of the last frontier. Few unsettled places offer opportunity today. Are there no more frontiers?

The world is full of them. Students who are preparing for a better life will have more pioneer work facing them than the world has ever seen. The universe is full of exciting adventures for all who are prepared to recognize them. For four years you have studied to see the possibilities in these new frontiers.

And what are the frontiers? First, there is the discovery and development of the individual to his highest capacity. Never before has it been possible to know each person and his abilities. Centuries ago Socrates said, "Know thyself," but offered no way to learn. Today psychology and vocational training make it possible for everyone to know himself or herself. Each can learn his abilities, his inner resources, and the way to use them to the best advantage.

There are new social frontiers; better ways to serve our fellow men that make for greater happiness. In politics the frontiers of new governments face every nation. If the understanding of the world's past is his, a life work faces the student who would work on the political frontier.

The economic frontiers are varied. New and better ways to make a living face us on every hand if we see them. In science the frontiers are limitless and practically unexplored. Comparatively little is known in the world of science and well might any young American devote his life to some phase of scientific work.

Every high school student must ask himself if he has learned of the frontier he seeks. Does he know its pitfalls and opportunities? Whether each of you has a share in the thrilling new adventures depends upon the use made of the four years in high school. Here the background of these thrilling new times is offered for investigation. Your success in later years will be in direct ratio to the time and thought you have spent studying the frontiers that are before you.

MRS. H. W. SAWYER,
Secretary, Churchill County Board of Education.

Our Principal

Principal George E. McCracken at His Desk

Every student in the high school comes under the influence of Mr. McCracken, and every student is the better for that influence. His interest in the individual student, and his wide knowledge in problems of vocational guidance have made it possible for many of his students to find their places in life after graduation.

Informal talks in the halls with "Mac" are enjoyed by the students, and it is to his office that his old graduates return when they come home. He shares with all his students their joys and sorrows.

We kick when he gives us demerits, but we always know his decisions are just.

Bob Lovelady, President—Our hats are off to you, Bob Lovelady—star football player, star at basketball, he spoils the old theory that athletes don't make good grades. He wields the gavel with as much skill as he makes end runs. Withal he hasn't lost his grin—big, genial, good-natured Bob.

Betty Woodward, Business Manager of Lahontan—Betty Woodward—we know her by her smile, her good scholarship, her enthusiasm for all school activities. We ask you, who could refuse to give Business Manager Betty an ad in Lahontan?

Curtis Willard, Vice President—Public speaker, Future Farmer, three-year football man—that's Curtis Willard, our vice president. He's served us well in Bob's absence, and has been an intelligent member of the executive committee.

Barbara Paul, Secretary—Who ever heard of being interested in hearing the notes of previous student body meetings read? That's what our secretary, Barbara Paul, has done. Somebody said, "If you want a job well done, give it to Barbara."

Lorraine Kendrick, Treasurer—Her smiling courtesy has boosted sales; as treasurer she has been on the selling rather than seeing end of games. She doesn't complain and we do appreciate all she has done. She gets good grades, too, and has her say when Alpha Lambda meets.

Patty Crehore, Editor of Lahontan—A little girl, with a little name, a great capacity for work, as great a capacity for friendship, for good citizenship—that's Patty Crehore, editor of Lahontan.

Why is Sonja Henie the most graceful thing on runners? And Fred Astaire the nimblest thing on toes? and Fallon Hi's Executive Committee snappier than ever before? Because they're a bit better than anyone else, that's why. It's just a little difference—but it's extra. Extra skill, extra work, extra enthusiasm.

They're wide awake, and alive! And they give out! They're the ones with dash and fire and personality!

And the Executive Committee runs our school. They're the ones who like to keep going and keep the school running smoothly. They're the ones that have been chosen from all the students as representatives—the student body president, secretary, treasurer, Annual editor and business manager, presidents of all the classes. They're really tops!

CLASSES

Seniors

Class History

The Seniors of '39 were the Freshmen of '35. We entered high school about 60 strong, no fresher and no greener than the average run of Freshies. According to tradition, the boys of the Freshmen class were duly set upon a drinking fountain. Two made history by escaping this hazing. We whitewashed the "F" and generally accorded respect to our superiors. That first year we elected these officers: President, Barbara Paul; Vice President, Wesley Baumann; Secretary, Mercedes Poncin; Treasurer, June Ogden; Annual Representative, Dick Lattin.

During our sophomore year we disciplined the Freshies. These officers were elected: President, David Spoon; Vice President, Myra Inman; Secretary, Carolyn Corn; Treasurer, Marie Evans; Annual Representative, Bill Lattin.

Coach Jim Bailey
Senior Teacher

Wesley Baumann
Senior President

As Juniors we feasted the Seniors at a memorable banquet. For officers we chose: President, Carolyn Corn; Vice President, Anna Piazza; Secretary, Hazel Prudler; Treasurer, Betty Woodward; Annual Representative, Vivian Sherwood.

Now that we have attained the distinction of Seniors we have elected these officers: President, Wesley Baumann; Vice President, John McDonald; Secretary, Vivian Sherwood; Treasurer, Hazel Prudler; Annual Representative, Glenn Lattin.

The Class of '39 has brought its share of honors to the high school. We have participated and excelled in all the school activities during the past four years. We have also taken our share of demerits so that the behavior standards would not be too difficult for succeeding classes to maintain. Altogether '39 has made history of which it may be proud. But we are not content to rest on past honors—'39 must continue to make history that will be a credit to C. C. H. S.

Who Are We?

Who are we? Why, Low Seniors! How did we happen to be Low Seniors? Simply because we graduated from grammar school in the middle of the year and entered C. C. H. S. the second semester, and with joyous hearts faced the scene of battle.

Our class has produced some wonderful athletic material. Chuck Beach is a champion at both football and basketball. "Ten Point" Allison on the basketball team has shown great ability. Myra Inman and Marjorie Madsen are two of the best girls' basketball players in the state. Idamarie Lappat comes under the same head.

Other outstanding pupils are Donald Bowers, dramatics, and Jeanne Cooke with her unbroken record of honor roll grades straight through her four years.

Mr. Jensen joined C. C. H. S. faculty last fall and has had charge of dramatics and boys' baseball. He also teaches typing.

History

Indeed we have a vivid history. For three years we have taken an active part in this school. As Freshmen we were properly humble, very quiet, remembering our lowly stations, yet doing our part towards parties, school spirit, and obeying the laws of the school. As sophomores we were a bit bolder, yet not too bold, for we knew we were still under-classmen. We took even more part in school activities.

Jim Allison
 Junior Class President

Now, as Juniors, we boast a proud, important class of this school. We are more important than the Seniors, for they will soon be gone, while we are looking forward to carrying the burden of running this school next year. We have many honor students such as Veloy Hendrix, Billy Blair, Robert Goff, Thais Sherman, Mathilda Teggart, and Franklin Wilson.

We take pride in Stephen Teggart, an active member of our splendid basketball team.

And so, having impressed you with our supremacy, we say good-bye until next year, when you'll see the best senior class you've had in years.

Last June we wondered how we could get along without the Class of '38. We didn't have to do without them entirely, because eleven of them returned to help us guide the Freshmen and direct the activities of the school. Several post-graduates dropped out of school during the year to accept positions in the community. Officers elected by the fifth year students were: Harriet Knobloch, President; Allen Guire, Vice President; Dorothy Allyn, Secretary; and Tony Erquiaga, Treasurer.

Sophs! Unapproachable Sophs!

For one whole year we have honored this school with our presence, and now it is beginning to take effect. Billy Steve has been one of the school's outstanding football men. Don Chapman received honors in the F. F. A. speaking contest. Carl Coverston has shown talent on the second string basketball team. Warren Hursh displayed unusual talent as drum major. Molly Lou Downs has twirled the baton with considerable skill.

Almost any time, both in and out of school hours, you will see some of this vast body of sophomores flitting about, lending a helping hand. To tell you of all their noble deeds would take much time and space, so we stop here, assured in the belief that all who read this are filled with admiration for that famous class.

Freshmen

In the fall of 1938, sixty freshmen with eager, shining faces, trudged up the shallow, concrete steps, between fluted columns, and entered the cool, dark halls of this sacred sanctuary of learning, the C. C. H. S. We were greatly impressed by the clock-like precision of the classes and the quiet dignity of the upper classmen. The lockers were a source of much pleasure, and having a key to carry about gave one a feeling of great importance. During the first month, that same key became a little bugbear. It was either at home on the mantle or in our other trousers pocket, and many dimes went into the school treasury, for opening lockers, but as time wore on, and the struggle for A-pluses, football, basketball and class officers became paramount, the little locker key was forgotten. That first year we whitewashed the "F" on Rattlesnake Hill and took our share of hazing and razzing.

Alpha Lambda

The Alpha Lambda is an honorary society for a select few, the more precocious students in high school, of the fairer sex. A-minus average for one semester is required for membership. A.-L. has 21 members.

The club meets every two weeks, with very interesting and instructive programs. Most of the parties covered study of foreign countries, carrying out the customs of the people in dress and native dishes. The group's donation to the school this year was a reference book for the library.

Miss Helen Coverston has been chosen club adviser, which office she has held capably and enthusiastically. Some of the dull hours of the winter months have been lightened by that exciting new paper put out by the Alpha Lambda girls. They've smoothed out all the wrinkles and are producing something extra special. It is the first paper that C. C. H. S. has had for some time—and do we like it!

Alpha Lambda Group

Director Herbert M. Peck, Jr.

Band

What brings out the latent school spirit in us? What peps up our assemblies? What makes dull moments in football and basketball games interesting? Our band, of course!

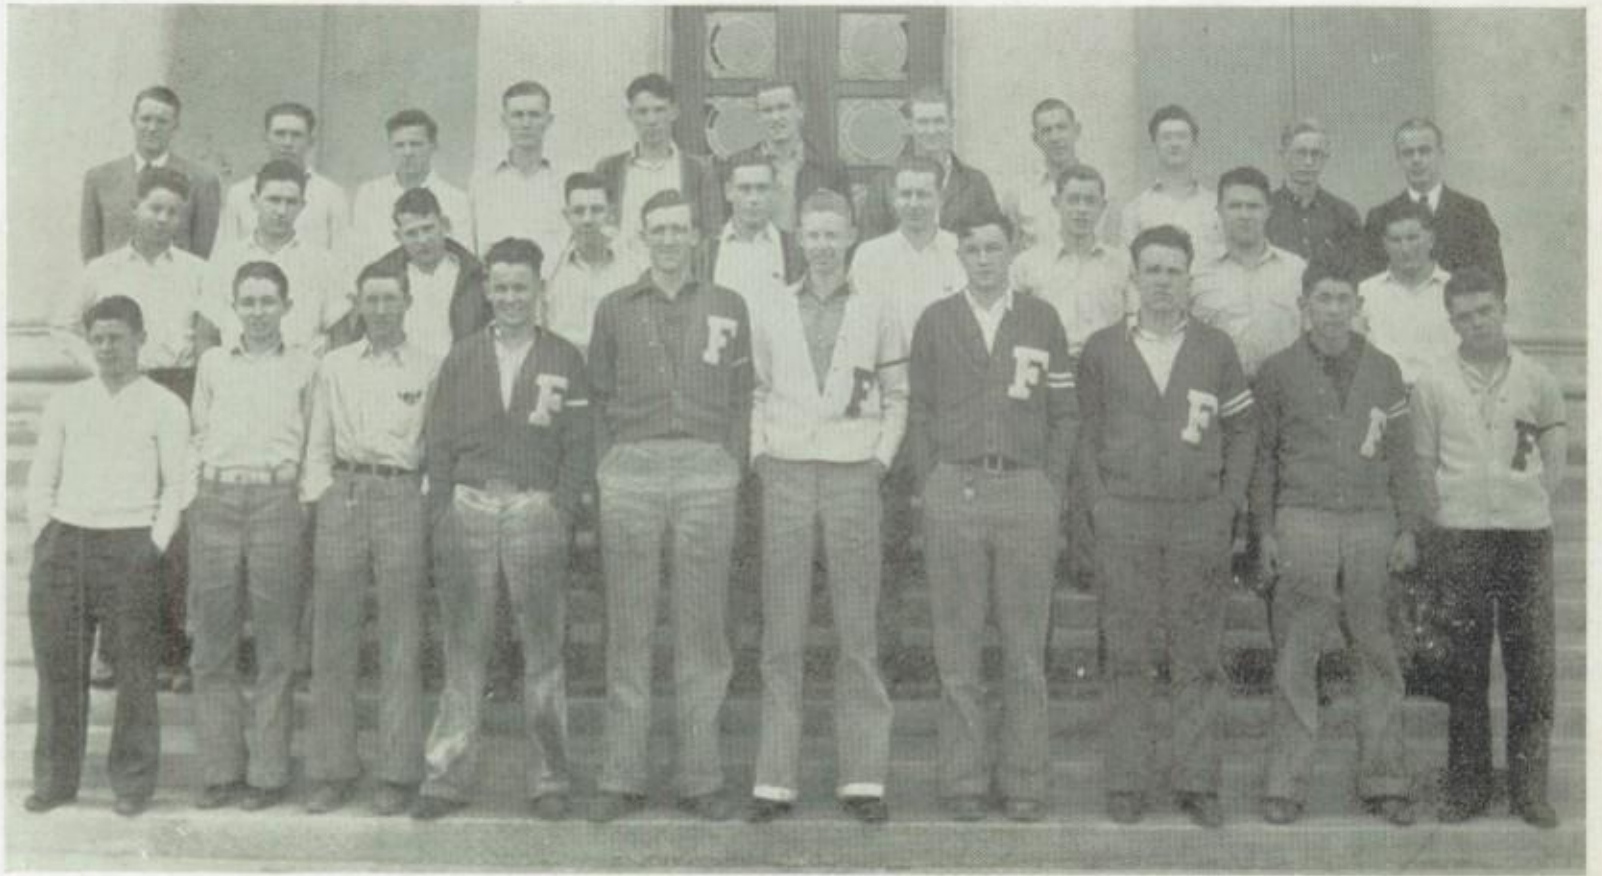

Mr. Peck's enthusiasm, together with the diligent puffing of thirty-five band members, account for this music. The student body enjoys the band so much the study hall quakes with cheers each time it appears. The townspeople gave proof of their appreciation of our band by building a bandstand in the city park.

A band-majorette in uniform, a glockenspiel, and cymbals, straight from Czechoslovakia, are additions to the band this year.

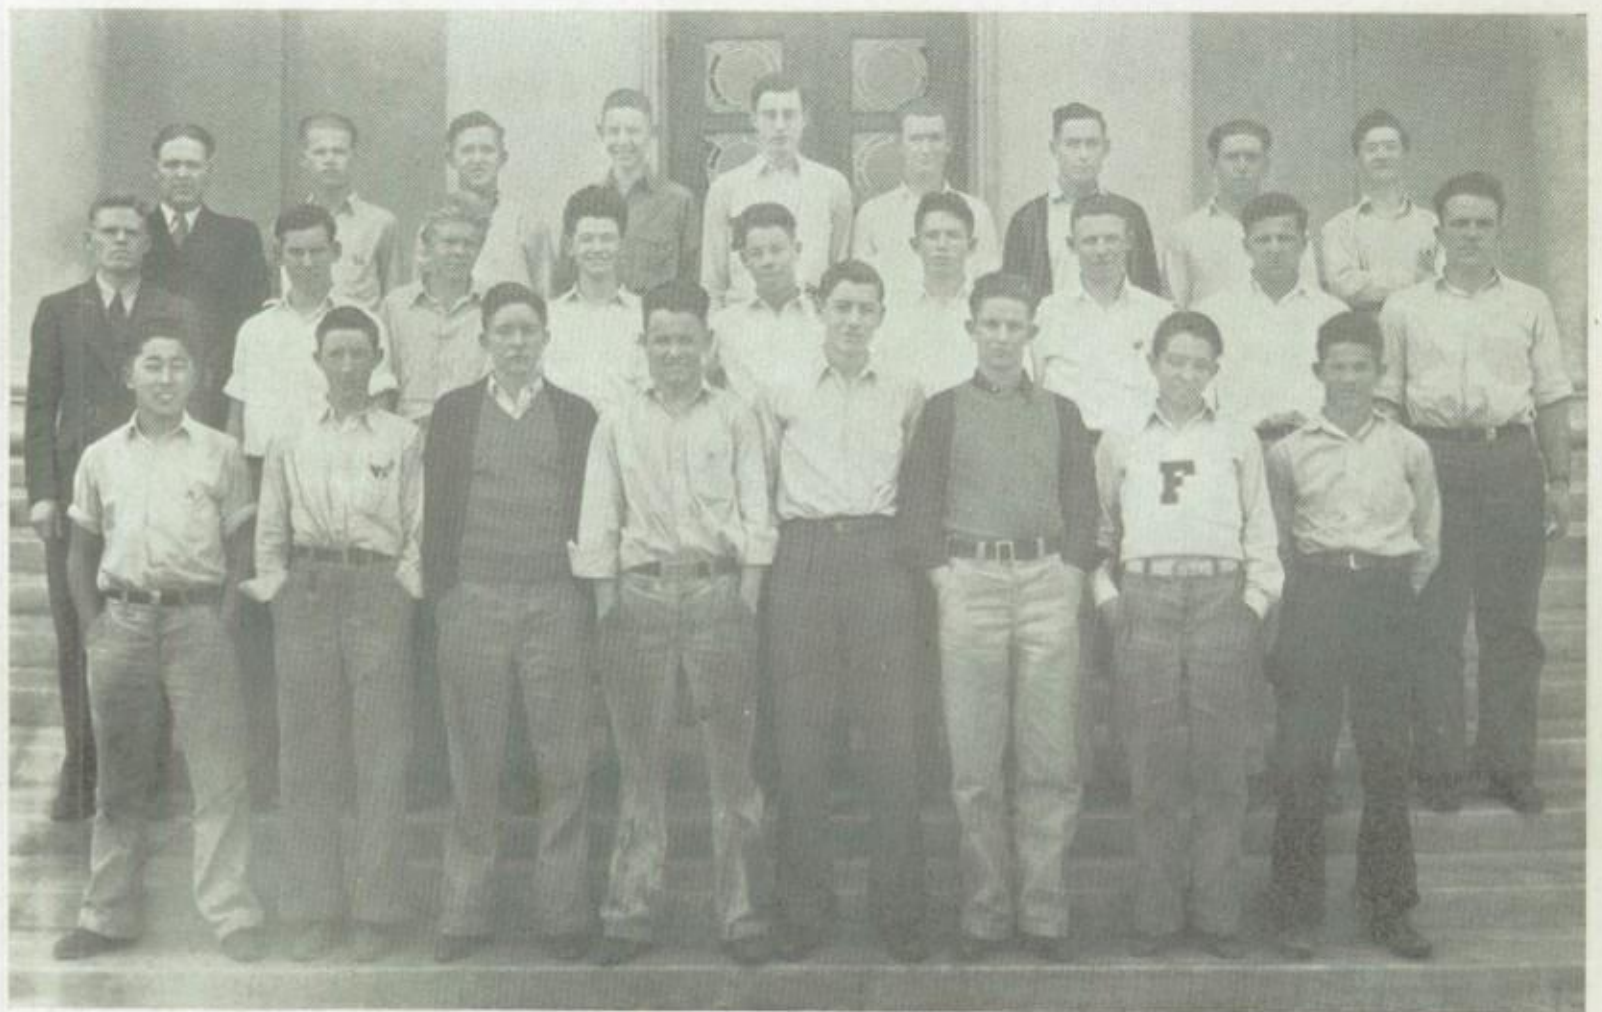

Director Peck and His Fine Band

Boys' Block "F"

Boys' Block "F"

"Step—glide—dance," one brawny Block "F" man yells at his laboring fellows as the letter men prepare for their annual Block "F" Follies. The brain child of Don Robertson, the Block "F" Follies have become in the past two years an unusual entertainment feature in the high school. Alumni Block "F" men take their places with the high school athletes to shine behind the footlights for the injured athletes' fund. Letter men in football, basketball or track make up Block "F" Society.

Four-Inch Block "F"

Four-Inch Block "F" Society is made up of B squad boys who have played as many B game hours as are required for regular Block "F" men in A games. Many of next year's A men will come from this group.

Commercial

Today an office worker must be carefully trained to advance in this extremely competitive field. Fallon has a superior school in many ways, and now Mr. McCracken is producing the finest secretaries trained in any Nevada high school. Through his efforts, our school has remodeled its business department, and installed modern office equipment. Under the guidance of Miss Larson the students are now learning to operate filing systems, a mimeograph, mimeoscope, calculators, different types of adding and bookkeeping machines, and a check writer. To be added to these machines is the dictaphone.

Miss Larson

Mr. Warman

More students entered the typing and shorthand classes this year than ever before. Fifty shorthand students and sixty typing students are receiving able guidance from Mr. Warman and Mr. Jensen. Bookkeeping classes are supervised this year by Mr. Warman.

In the shorthand contests held last spring, second, third, fourth and fifth places were taken by Ruth Lima, Barbara Paul, Harriet Knobloch and Kathryn Winder. Myrle Lehman and Leora Nickolay placed high in bookkeeping contests at the same time.

Future Farmers

Churchill County High School Chapter, Future Farmers of America

Bringing home from the state meet two of the four possible first place ranks, Churchill County High's Future Farmers again proved that their chapter is one of the leading chapters in Nevada.

Bob Lovelady, president of the local chapter, won first place in the state-wide public speaking contest, winning the right to represent Nevada in the regional meet in Berkeley, speaking on "Improving Farming Methods in Nevada to Increase Agricultural Profits."

A silver cup presented to the student body by Tony Erquiaga proved that he, Dale Mobley, Robert Swope, and Gordon Mills were the best seed, weed, and pest identification team in the state.

Three of the five chosen for State Farmer degree at the F. F. A. convention this year, George Hassard, Wendell Imus and Silvio Peraldo, are members of the Churchill chapter.

Mr. Schank's intelligent and enthusiastic leadership, together with splendid cooperation from the Future Farmers have made this a banner year for the organization. Successful farmers from the community have held round-table discussions with the boys on such subjects as dairying, chicken farming, and the functioning of various farm organizations.

Interest was added to the meetings of the group by presenting films on agricultural subjects, and still further interest was added by such diversions as apple and peanut feeds.

Highlight of the year was the Fathers and Sons Banquet, prepared and served by Miss Smith's home economics classes.

Girls' Glee Club

Mr. Moore and his twenty-nine-girl Glee Club

"Remarkably fine" is the comment most often heard after the Girls' Glee Club has made one of its all too infrequent appearances.

Meeting twice a week, twenty-nine high school warblers, ably directed by Mr. Moore, enjoy their practices. We hear now and again of ladies who cut rehearsals, but for the most part the girls are glad to avail themselves of the only opportunity in our school for vocal training.

Each year's graduation exercises are featured by songs from the Glee Club.

Girls' Block "F"

Girls' Block "F" Society

When we see a high school girl proudly wearing a Block "F" sweater, we know that girl has a right to strut a bit. To earn that sweater, she has played ninety-six minutes of interscholastic ball. She has kept training rules, even to staying home from Errol Flynn's latest picture. She has kept her grades high. She has been a good sport, always. She's been a credit to Fallon High when the team has travelled. She's tops!

Fireside Circle

Home Arts Girls—Fireside Circle

Who says today's girls can't cook? We refer anybody who doubts the culinary ability of our high school lassies to Miss Smith's Home Arts Girls. The meals prepared for the Future Farmers, and for several groups within the school fortunate enough to be asked to dine, prove these girls can cook. They can run up a good seam, too, we have noticed as we've watched the girls exhibit the little numbers they've created. They learn how to decorate homes, how to enhance their beauty, how to keep their families happy.

These domestic marvels have organized themselves into the Lahontan Arc, a branch of the state-wide Fireside Circle. The organization forms a connection between home and school activities, and trains its members to be efficient in home and in community life. Pins are presented by the Circle to girls who merit them.

Jewel Hall headed the group first semester, Elna Holmer second semester.

Old English F

Undistinguished and looking as any one of Churchill's 380 students are members of the Old English F Society. But in reality they have made the school's outstanding scholastic records. Composing this group are those who have earned at least one semester's credits of A's, and those who have had special recognition in the field of public speaking, dramatics, or secretarial work. Small wonder most students desire membership in this organization.

Miss Cousie Coverston and Orchestra

Under the direction of Miss Cousie Coverston are assembled in our orchestra most of Churchill County High's musically inclined. Unobtrusive practice twice weekly in the study hall has given every player valuable and enjoyable musical experience. This spring found Fallon's well-balanced orchestra in busy preparation for the district meet held in Minden. Very favorable comment was given Fallon's renditions, and the group had the pleasure of joining in a mass Nevada orchestra as a climax to the meet.

Forum Society

The only organization of its kind in the state, Forum has for many years given students fine training in public speaking. Better grades, more self-assurance, and an increased interest in current topics have been the reward of ambitious Forum members.

Visitors from the high school, and townspeople, have found the Forum programs very entertaining. Mr. McCracken has given his time and able direction to the group.

Pep Squad

Pep Squad Officers:

Warren Hursh, President
 Brunson Harris, Vice President
 Kathryn Winder, Secretary
 Lola Jensen, Treasurer

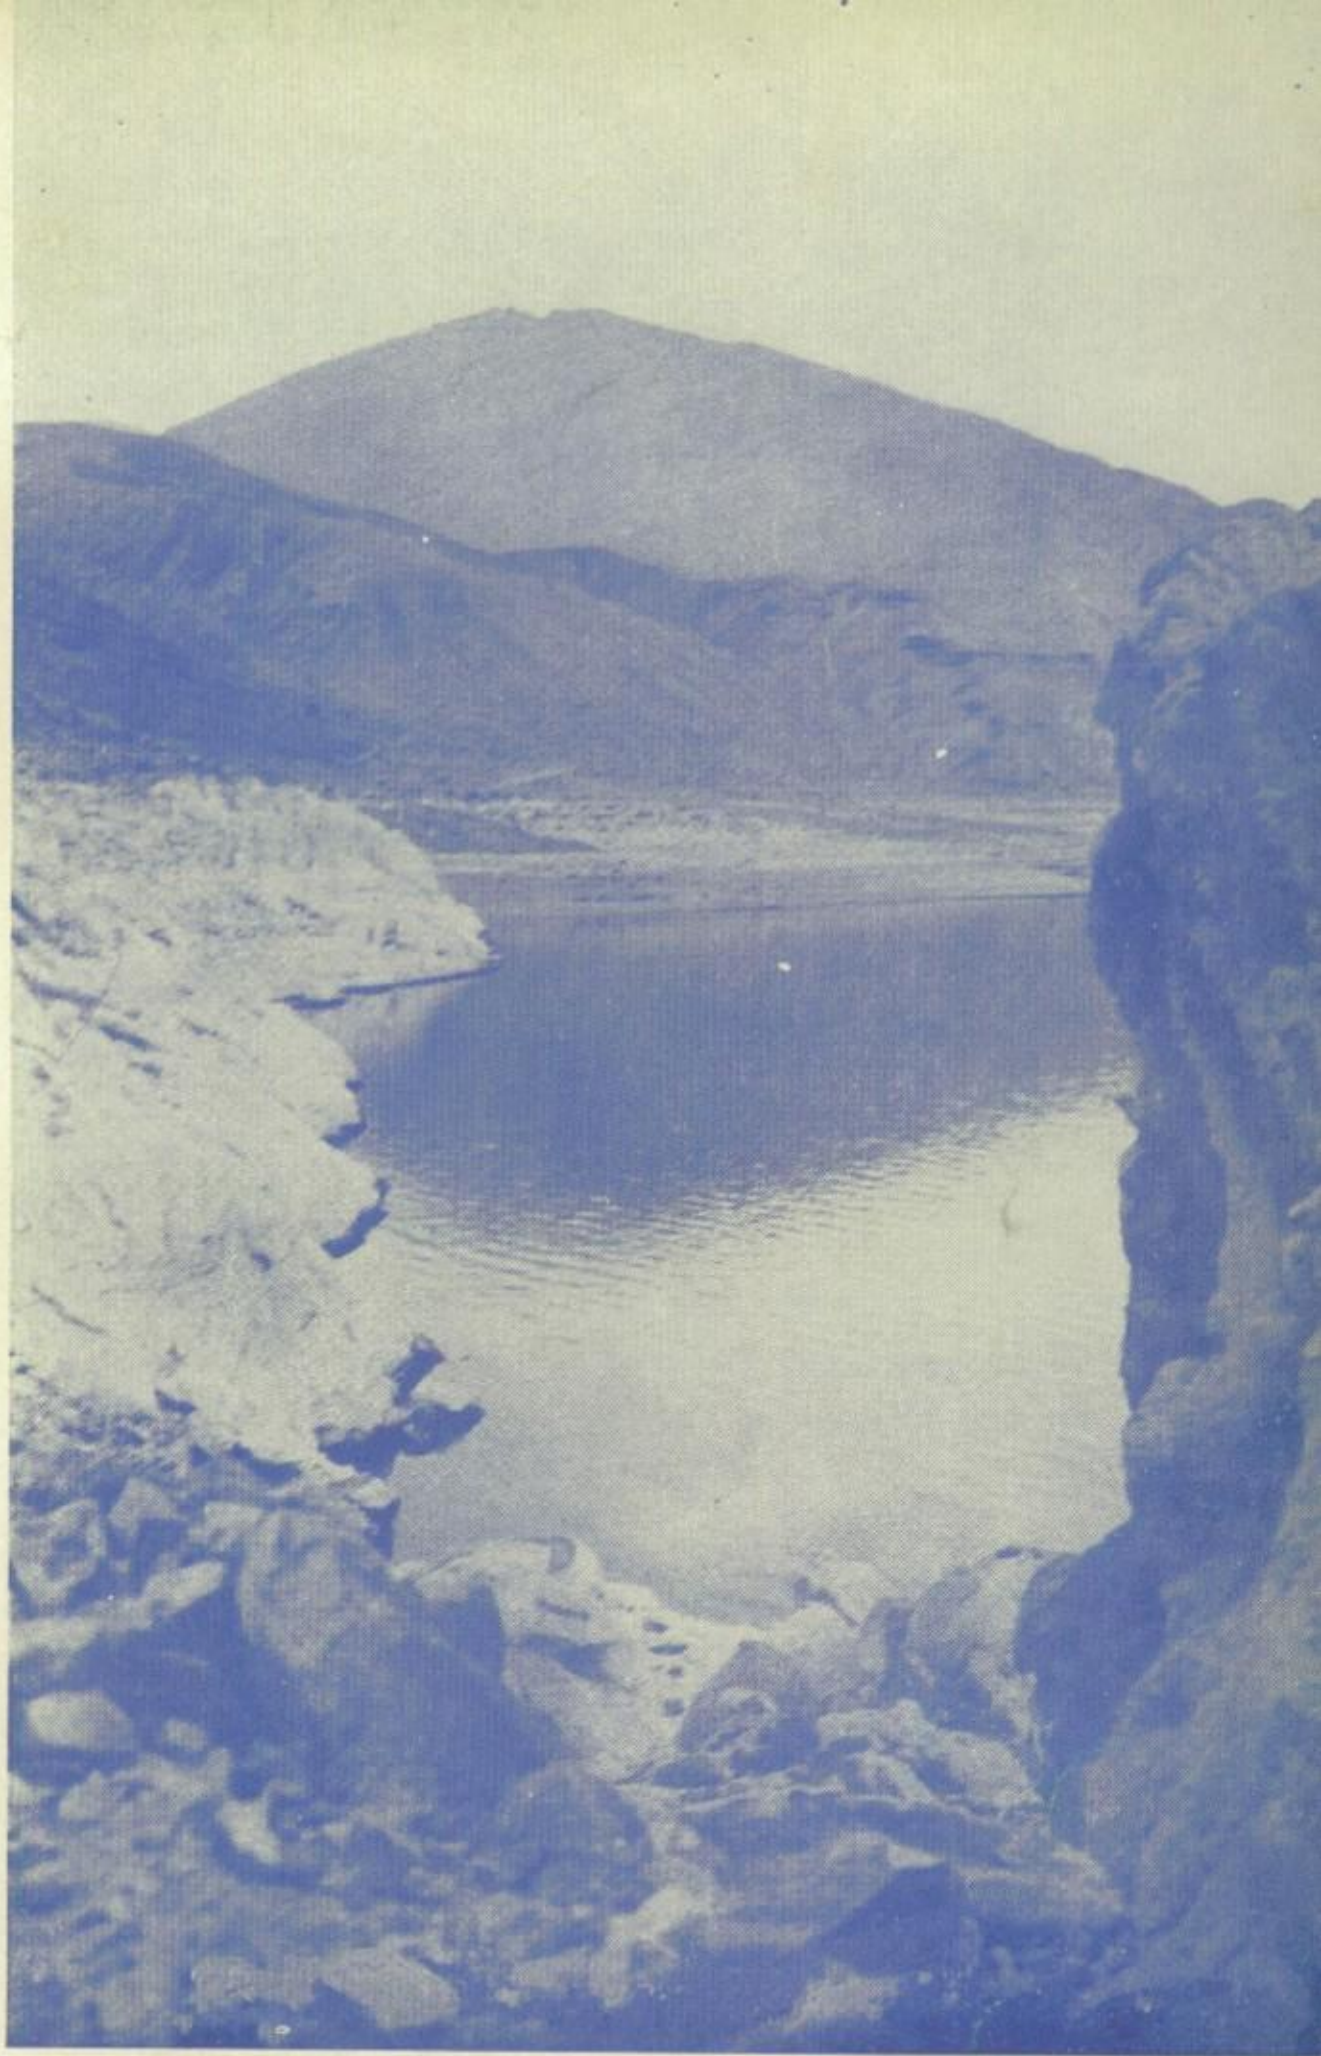

As the result of the need for a greater student body unity, the newly organized Pep Squad made a rousing entry into the school life.

Its members were chosen for their school spirit and activity by the class presidents. The aim of the club is to obtain greater support of our inter-scholastic contests. How well it has succeeded is evidenced by livelier assemblies, refreshingly new yells and songs, and larger season ticket disposals.

With Mr. Warman as supervisor, the Pep Squad has adopted green and white for squad uniform colors. Unpredictable stunts conceived by its energetic members will cause many a commotion in our future assemblies.

Our Yell Leaders

No matter how fine the school, we're apt to feel a little "old-shoe" at times. That's why we need yell leaders to put some zip and zest into the student body.

Early in the fall Ronda Brimhall and Allen Spoon were elected yell leaders. About a month later, Ronda dropped out, leaving "Allie" holding down the job single-handed. This one-man yell-leading committee was equal to a whole crowd. "Allie" filled his job with ability, enthusiasm and pep. Three cheers for "Allie"!

Quote:

"The 1938 football squad of the Fallon High School was blessed with some very fine material, and only the fact that they had to play the toughest football schedule that any Nevada high school team has ever played, together with learning a new system, kept them from being the top-notch team of the state."

"Chuck" Beach

Jim Bailey this year set out to coach a Fallon team equal to the Fallon teams on which he played. When our men brought home the Western Zone Trophy, we knew that the coach and his men had built a Fallon team—a Bailey team.

Any Fallon team is confusing, but when two from Fallon appeared in each game, is it any wonder the opposing squad backed down? Terrorized by our Giants, the defending teams were then baffled by our Midgets.

The Fallon stars were a credit to us as a team, and an even greater credit as a group of men. Wherever they played, they left behind them a reputation for being good sports, clean players, all around good athletes.

Spring Athletics

Track—

That this is indeed Fallon's year was again proven when our C. C. H. S. athletic field was chosen as the place for holding this year's state high school track meet.

On May 13, as Lahontan was going to press, leading schools from all over the state were scheduled to meet on Fallon's cinder track to enter their fastest and best men in the school meet of the year.

Splendid cooperation from the Future Farmer boys, Dodge Construction, Inc., and Silver State Construction Co. had enabled Coaches Bill Warman and Jim Bailey to get the track and field in A-1 shape.

In addition to medals and trophies purchased by the Nevada Interscholastic League, the I. H. Kent Company, Fallon Mercantile Company and Lahontan Motor Company also donated awards for this meet.

Boys' Baseball—

"Ball one! Strike one!" echo across the athletic field as Churchill County High School's first baseball team gets under way. Coached by Paul Jensen, the team has scheduled games with Stewart, Reno, Sparks and Virginia City for this year. Playing in big-time suits donated by the Fallon Aerie of Eagles, the baseball lads make a fine showing and have turned in some good games so far.

Girls' Softball—

That the hand that wields a lipstick can also wield a baseball bat is proven by our girls' softball team.

Coached by Bob Best, Fallon High's lady batters meet at the Oats Park softball court three times a week.

Providing an after-basketball sport for athletics-minded girls, softball is very popular.

Several games have been scheduled with out of town teams for what we are sure will be a banner year for our lady Babe Ruths.
